BLOOD WAS SHED.

First Fatal Encounter in the Street Car Strike.

VOLLEY FIRED AT CROWD.

One Man Instantly Killed and Another Wounded—Soldiers and Police Almost Powerless.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Jan. 25.—The first fatal encounter of the great strike took place about 11 o'clock last night, when, in an encounter with a few boys, at the Halsey street station of the Brooklyn City Railway company, a volley was fired by the militia. Henry Ahnes, of New York City, was fatally shot, a musket ball entering at his mouth and passing through his head. Another man, whose name is Williams, was wounded in the arm.

The shooting had the instant effect of dispersing the mob. The ninth day of the tie-up closed without bringing material change in the situation. It was a day of alarming rumors, which, fortunately, had slight or no foundation. There were, between daybreak and nightfall, numerous brushes between the police and militia on one side, and the strikers or headstrong, law-defying sympathizers with their cause on the other. The linemen's strike, which was to have tied up the trolley lines more effectively than had been done by the strike of motormen, conductors and other employees, was called off before it was fairly on, and later in the day the mandate of Master Workman Connelly was promulgated, calling upon the linemen to abandon their situations today.

The developments of the day were not reassuring, as a whole. In spite of the fact that there are under arms in the city 8,000 state soldiery and 1,500 policemen are on duty, intramural traffic is suffering a virtual paralysis, in which the industries of the city participate to a greater or lesser degree. Lawlessness is rampant, and, altogether, conditions are such as may excite the gravest apprehension.

Disorderly element in the city has been largely recruited from New York and other cities, and has, as is usual in such cases, arrayed itself with the strikers, a selfish advocacy of whose cause affords a pretext for the perpetration of graver crimes than have yet marked the progress of the pending contest.

A squad of five mounted police galloped down Broadway on the sidewalk at 9:50 o'clock. The patrol wagon, filled with policemen under command of Capt. Dunn, of the Fourth precinct, turned into Broadway from Halsey street. Innocent citizens passing along the sidewalk, were driven into the streets. No crowd had collected and the raid of the mounted police was uncalled for. Fortunately the clatter of horses' hoofs gave warning in time for people to rush to the middle of the street.

At 7:30 o'clock this evening, at the Ridgewood depot of the Brooklyn city railway, Lieutenant Schuyler, in command of Company B, of the Seventh regiment, was sent to protect the power house and its approaches with orders to use violence if resistance was offered. The advance of Lieutenant Schuyler dispersed the crowd, though at first it was slow in moving. One man, a German, wanted to argue his rights and would not move. Private Leonard prodded the man in the leg with his bayonet with sufficient energy to make him howl. He immediately threw a stone and a few minutes after he was driven away he returned with a number of men armed with stones. These they threw at the soldiers and then fled. At 8:10 a large and noisy crowd had gathered around the depot. No guard was on the outside of the buildings. Suddenly a number of stones were hurled into the depot by the crowd. In a moment Captain Nesbitt, of company R, followed by Adjutant Weaver and several privates rushed out, formed a skirmish line and drove the stone throwers back. Then the police took up the pursuit and fired four or five shots over the heads of the crowd, effectually dispersing them. The soldiers did not fire. At 8:30 the people who had taken the elevated steps for vantage ground from which to gey the police and militia were driven up and into the depot and made to buy tickets in order to escape.

Since these incidents a heavy guard has been maintained outside the depot. An enthusiastic meeting of the strikers and their sympathizers was held last night at Labor Lyceum in Willoughby avenue.

The strikers with their families and friends were out in full force. As each speaker came forward he was received with wild applause. J. DeLong, a business man, strongly in sympathy with the strike movement, claimed that every man, woman and child in Brooklyn was in sympathy with the strikers. On motion of the chairman, M. J. Bowen, a resolution was passed requesting the mayor to sign the recent resolution of the board of aldermen condemning the trolley companies.

FAILED TO AGREE.

The Jury Discharged in the Harlan Murder Case.

Special to the DEMOCRAT.

FAYETTE, Mo., Jan. 23.—The jury in the Harlan murder case, charged with murder in the first degree in having killed Wm. Moore on a ferry boat at Cedar City, several months ago, was discharged by Judge Hockaday today, it being impossible for them to agree upon a verdict.

The jury was out four days and it is understood that they stood seven for hanging and five for acquittal.

HE FOUND $46.

A Clever Find by John Cunningham This Morning.

John Cunningham, the popular Third street merchant tailor, found $46 this morning.

On the occasion of the Christmas fair and festival by the ladies of Sacred Heart church Mr. Cunningham was temporary custodian of the funds, and one night, after the close of the festival, he placed $46 in silver in a box in his safe and covered it with paper.

The festival was of several nights' duration, and Mr. Cunningham finally turned over to the lady managers all of the cash, as he supposed, that had been entrusted to him, but overlooked completely the $46 in nickels, dimes, etc., that he had placed in his safe for safe keeping.

This morning, in rummaging through his safe, Mr. Cunningham came across the deposit and his surprise may be imagined. He promptly turned it over to Father Dickman, and is now in doubt as to whether the joke is on him or on the board of lady managers who settled with him without discovering the $46 shortage.

PERSONATED A PRIEST.

An Official and an Ex-Officer Attempt to Extort a Confession.

GREEN BAY, Wis., Jan. 23.—Bishop Messmer has published a vigorous statement denouncing the action of Sheriff Delaney and B. M. Berindson, ex-register of deeds. Berindson, at the instance of Delaney, it is charged, masqueraded as a priest and went to the cell of John Dazkowsky, the prisoner who is supposed to have killed his wife and burned the body. Berindson made Dazkowsky kiss a crucifix and attempted to wring from him a confession. Bishop Messmer says: "Shame and indignation must fill the heart of every Catholic at the thought that two of their co-religionists could be found so devoid of religious feeling or so utterly careless of their doings and consequences, that by a blasphemous mimicry they would make the character of the sacred ministry serve as a means of contemptible trickery."

A Suit for $1,000.

The case of John D. Varner against the M. & T. Railway Co., a suit for $1,000 damages for injuries sustained by his little daughter, who lost a limb by being run over on defendant's track, is being tried in the Pettis county circuit court today. Hon. P. D. Hastain is attorney for the plaintiff and Geo. P. B. Jackson for the defendant.

INDICTMENTS MISSING.

Developments in the Nevada Bank Officer's Trial.

A sensation was created at Nevada yesterday when it was discovered that seven of the eight indictments against ex-Cashier O. K. Caldwell, of the defunct Citizens' bank, were missing from the circuit clerk's office.

The circuit clerk says he placed the indictments in the safe on Friday, but Monday afternoon when the prosecuting attorney wanted them they were gone.

One of the eight indictments against Mr. Caldwell, with one each against Wm. Christian, vice president, and W. E. Robinson, director of the bank, were left undisturbed.

It is supposed that the missing indictments were surreptitiously stolen from the safe. The case against the bank officials was set Important Suggestion.

PATIENT—How are we made sick and miserable, and what are the causes?

DOCTOR—The neglect of the first symptoms of indigestion, this is the foundation upon which dyspepsia, kidney trouble, nervous prostration, and in fact, all nerve troubles are built, and unless promptly checked will result in a general breaking down of the nervous system.

PAT.—How can these diseases be prevented?

DOC.—The food we eat should be thoroughly cooked and should be well masticated when eating, and a reasonable length of time should be taken for each meal, and not hurried; plenty of exercise in the fresh air should also be taken, and if unable to go out in the open, see that your room is well ventilated and let the fresh and healthy air come in; in addition to this it is highly necessary that the digestive organs should be toned up and strengthened, nature must be assisted from time to time.

PAT.—What is to be done (when the disease has already taken hold) in order to check the advance of the complaint?

DOC.—The first thing is to provide yourself with a cure.

PAT.—What would you advise?

DOC.—There are several remedies; Louton's Nervonax or New Blood is a purely vegetable compound and is the only reliable and permanent cure. Your system needs fresh blood from which the nerve centers draw their nourishment and so enabling them to impart vigor and strength to the digestive organs and to the entire system.

PAT.—Where can Louton's Nervonax or New Blood be obtained?

DOC.—Ask Ang. T. Fleischmann, Fourth and Ohio streets, for it.

A $5 VERDICT.

But the Plaintiff Had Sued for $10,000 Damages.

In the Pettis county circuit court, this morning, a verdict for $5 damages was returned in the case of Mrs. Edna Petty, wife of "Uncle" Curd Petty, against the Sedalia Electric Railway Co., because of injuries sustained by plaintiff by reason of one of defendant's cars having collided with a buggy in which she was driving, south of the city, last July.

The amount sued for was $10,000, and Judge Shirk, one of the attorneys for defendant, remarked when the verdict was rendered that he certainly had no ground for an appeal on the ground of an excessive judgment against his client.

BAPTISTE AND LUTTBEG.

Interest in Their Approaching Match at Fever Heat.

Next Saturday night, at Entertainment hall, St. Louis, will occur what should prove the greatest wrestling event ever witnessed in the city of St. Louis.

Max Luttbeg, the acknowledged champion light-weight, will meet George Baptiste, the champion middle-weight, in a mixed match, Graeco-Roman and catch-as-catch-can, and the third bout if a third be necessary, to be settled by the toss of a coin. Luttbeg is wrestling instructor of the Pastime Athletic club, has met all the prominent light-weights and welter-weights, and many of the middle-weight and heavy-weight wrestlers of the country, and is yet to be defeated.

George Baptiste has met many a good man, and placed his two shoulders to the mat. What Luttbeg were discharged by Judge Patterson.

The jury stood nine to three in favor of the plaintiff. They stood that way on every ballot taken, the first having been taken at 7:10 o'clock Monday night.

Laidlaw sued Russell Sage for $50,000 damages sustained by the Norcross bomb explosion in Sage's office. This was the second trial, he having been awarded $25,000 damages before.

TREDWAY REMOVED.

Serious Charges Brought Against Him in St. Louis.

Probate Judge Rassieur has revoked Dwight Tredway's appointment as administrator of the estate of Manning Tredway, says today's St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Mr. E. C. Eliot, attorney for Susie N. Eddy, formerly Susie N. Tredway, the widow of Manning Tredway, filed an affidavit of that lady, who deposed that she desired Tredway removed from the trust on these grounds:

Dwight Tredway is incapable and unsuitable to execute the trust by reason of his customary negligence of business matters and the care of accounts, and because of his personal insolvency; and because, also, he has failed to make the reports required by law; and lastly, because he has converted to his own use the property belonging to the estate, and has made erroneous and false returns. Judge Rassieur sustained the motion and granted an order of removal.

CALLED ON COOK.

Pauline Hall Has a Talk With the Noted Bandit.

Pauline Hall, the actress, has been much favored by Bill Cook, the noted outlaw, who is now confined in the jail at Fort Smith, Ark.

Pauline, like the rest of the men and women of the United States, has had a great desire to see and talk with the most noted bandit of his time. She called at the jail at Fort Smith Monday and her card was sent in to Cook. The outlaw sent back word that he would be pleased to see her. She accordingly went in the prison.

When she was introduced to Cook she put out her hand and the outlaw shook it warmly, but not urgently. Miss Hall asked him about some of his adventures and he talked with her about his experience with considerable freedom. As she was getting up to leave she expressed her pleasure at the meeting and offered him one of her photographs as a souvenir. Cook thanked her, and at her request gave her his own autograph. Miss Hall says that the bandit is a very pleasant fellow, indeed, and she does not believe him guilty of half the hard things of which he is accused.

WARNED THE MAYOR.

Threatening Letter Sent to the Mayor of Nevada.

Maj. J. W. Jones, of Nevada, Mo., yesterday received a threatening letter from a party unknown, who says he is one of the twenty appointed to wait upon him. The purport of the letter is as follows:

He is informed that the mayor had employed detectives to watch gamblers and saloon men to stop gambling and selling whisky, and warns the mayor to let up on this, as mayors have been killed for less things than this.

The writer further claims that the marshal and police are powerless, as they have the drop on them. The mayor feels no anxiety about his personal safety. The matter has been taken in charge by the city marshal, Alderson, who says he will show the fellows about having any "drop" on him.

Clerk Gilpatrick Resigns.

George Gilpatrick, for the past three months the popular and efficient night clerk at Sacher's hotel, resigned his position today, effective on the 28th.

"Gil" has not yet decided as to what he will do, but he is almost certain not to be long out of employment, as he is as much at home in business circles as he is on the ball field.

Sedalia hopes to retain both "Gil" and "Wick" for the ensuing season, but in case they should go

THAT $50,000 SUIT.

It Was Continued on Application of J. West Goodwin.

The $50,000 damage suit of J. West Goodwin against Dr. H. W. Wood for an alleged assault committed in January, 1894, will not be tried at the present term of the Pettis county circuit court, it having been continued today until the next term, on application of the plaintiff, but not at defendant's cost, as plaintiff had asked.

In filing his answer Dr. Wood presented fourteen pages of typewritten extracts from the columns of the Bazoo, all made up of personal attacks on the defendant, and the plaintiff was not ready to meet these at this time, for which reason he asked a continuance.

A COMING TREAT.

Rev. Dr. Anna Howard Shaw to Appear in Sedalia.

There is probably not a better known woman in the country than Rev. Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, who is to appear at the First M. E. church here February 14, and yet, like Frances Willard, she has been rejected by the Methodist Episcopal church for ordination.

After a long and futile struggle to be ordained in the church of her choice, Miss Shaw, with that virile determination which has marked her entire career, left that denomination and went into the Methodist Protestant church, where she became the first regularly ordained woman minister of that denomination.

Miss Shaw has had a very successful career as a pastor in several churches, including a seven years' pastorate at Cape Cod. Miss Shaw is brainy, witty, clever in argument and quick as a flash at repartee, and she is not slow at times to indulge in a little gentle railery against church prejudice. It was not long ago that she said in an address:

"The claim is sometimes made that every woman who is a suffragist is an infidel. Now, the way of it is this: As soon as we begin to get progressive the church says we are heretics; when they cry 'heretic!' they put us out, and when they have put us out they say we are infidels."

Miss Shaw is not at present in charge of a congregation, her eloquence and progressive ideas having brought her the offer of national lecturer for the National American Suffrage association, and to accept that she resigned her charge.

THE DEMOCRAT, SEDALIA, MO.
OFFICE, 307 Ohio Street. Telephone 232.

THE KANSAS legislature has already begun to investigate the populist state officials.

If the separate court bill will save in criminal costs more than the salary of the judge, then it should become a law. "If otherwise, otherwise."

THE full house committee, by a vote of 9 to 7, decided not to prefer articles of impeachment against Judge Ricks, but will instead report a resolution denouncing the fee system.

STEVE ELKINS, formerly of Boone county, was elected United States senator from West Virginia yesterday. Steve would have remained in Missouri a long time before such an honor would have been bestowed upon him.

It is pretty well settled that the present congress will fail to enact any financial measure of importance. The republicans seem about as badly divided on the subject as the democrats, but they will probably have an opportunity to try their hands as reformers.

FIRE losses in the United States for the year 1894 were $128,246,400; in 1893 they were $156,445,875, and in 1892, $132,704,700. The decrease during the past year being over twenty-eight million dollars. These figures seem to indicate that the rates should come down, provided there is any connection between losses and premiums.

Gov. STONE sent a special message to the general assembly yesterday which takes the wind out of Statesman Tubbs' resolution regarding railroad assessments. The governor shows that the increased assessment was heaviest in the cities and that the increase on farm lands was largely in those counties that had been reported so low as to work an injustice upon other localities.

THE movement for the removal of the agricultural college from Columbia is in no sense a fight against the university. The preparatory department of the university was abolished and the institution was benefitted thereby. There would be no more rivalry or antagonism between the university and an agricultural and mechanical college than there is between that institution and the public schools.

THE attempt to make political capital out of the assessment of railroad property in Missouri must fall flat in the face of the following comparison which Governor Stone makes in his special message: "The average valuation per mile in Iowa is $5,293; in Kansas, $6,026; in Illinois, $8,542; while in Missouri the assessable mileage is fixed at $11,157. The assessment in Iowa is only 48 per cent of that in Missouri; in Kansas it is 58 per cent and in Illinois 76 per cent of that in Missouri. Take Illinois, the next highest to Missouri, and make a specific comparison. In Missouri the Chicago and Alton is assessed at $17,590 per mile, while the same road in Illinois is assessed at only $10,545 per mile. If similar comparisons should be made of roads extending from Missouri into Iowa or Kansas, the contrast will appear all the more marked and striking. Thus it will be seen that railroad properties in Missouri are assessed very much higher than in the great states upon our border."

THE DEMOCRAT understands that a prominent local attorney, with whom this paper has always maintained most pleasant relations, is "pawing the earth" because of the publication of "Taxpayer's" communication against the special court bill. It occurs to us that it would be much the wiser course for him to answer the objections. The DEMOCRAT was inclined to favor the bill under the belief that it would be so framed as to work a substantial saving in criminal costs, and that more frequent terms of court were needed to dispose of civil cases. But if "Taxpayer" is correct in saying that the bar has heretofore requested that one of the three terms be omitted, and correct in his statements as to criminal costs being increased rather than diminished, quite another phase is put upon the matter. If the justices of the peace are still to have the jurisdiction that they now exercise and the board bill of prisoners held for criminal court is to be the only saving, it may well be doubted whether the separate court will prove an economical measure. Let's have the measure discussed by some who are familiar with the question of costs and procedure in criminal cases. In the meantime, "pawing the earth" is not argument, and denouncing a newspaper for permitting the discussion of a public matter is not in good taste. The columns of the DEMOCRAT are open to any attorney who wishes to argue in support of the bill, but will not be closed to those opposed to it.

Jewelers Fall Out.
A sad contention has fallen out between two Butler jewelry firms. F. Bernhardt during the holidays issued a circular which said among other things:

"I cannot compete selling cheap diamonds, as I do not take the ladies $300 diamonds out of their earrings and substitute paste diamonds as has been done."

Several days since N. B. Jeter, a rival dealer, brought a damage suit against Mr. Bernhardt for $60,000, there being six counts in the petition and $10,000 asked on each count. As grounds for the suit plaintiff recites that the above paragraph is aimed at him and alleges that Mr. Bernhardt said in explaining its meaning that Mr. Jeter had taken the diamonds of Mrs. Walton's earrings and substituted paste diamonds worth about $30.

No Sleep for 116 Days.

David Jones, a prosperous farmer living near Elwood, Ind., has had no sleep since September 25. Three years ago he was afflicted in the same way for a period of ninety days, when sleep again returned and was normal until about September 18, when he became restless and could only catch short naps.

On the 25th sleep left him entirely and he says he does not feel that he would ever desire to sleep again. At times he becomes very nervous, but if he lies down and remains quiet for a time he arises much refreshed. He has now been without sleep for 116 days.

A Couple of Changes Scheduled.

In the reorganization of the state supreme court it is scheduled to remove State Librarian W. J. Zevely and Court Stenographer Brown.

Zevely is secretary of the democratic state central committee and for many years has been state librarian. The removal of Zevely has been rumored for weeks, as it is said that he had some lively enemies among the judges of the court.

No Cigarette-Smoking Pupils.

No cigarette-smoking pupil will be allowed to attend the St. Joseph public schools. LAST NIGHT'S HOP.

The Ball Given by Friemel's Celebrated Orchestra.

The ball at Association park last night by Friemel's orchestra was a delightful affair. The attendance was not as large as had been hoped for, but the programme was carried out just as if there had been four or five hundred persons present.

There were twenty-two dances on the programme and it was an early hour this morning when the festivities came to a close. The music was furnished by the following gentlemen, all of whom are members of Local Union No. 90, National League of Musicians: Prof. Oscar Schuppe, first violin; H. Bush, second violin; K. Wallace, viola; E. Clay, cello; H. Meyer, double bass; Prof. L. E. Friemel, director, clarinette; W. Katzer, flute; C. Hartenbach, solo cornet; H. Rothganger, second cornet; H. Hartenbach, first French horn; A. H. Otten, second French horn; A. M. Parks, trombone; E. Dorn, drums and taps; A. J. Leece, Lou Bernstein, prompters.

An Old Soldier's Recommendation.

In the late war I was a soldier in the First Maryland Volunteers, Company G. During my term of service I contracted chronic diarrhoea. Since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief it would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow. I take pleasure in recommending this preparation to all my old comrades, who, while giving their services to their country, contracted this dreadful disease as I did, from eating unwholesome and uncooked food. Yours truly,

Something New—Beef Tenderloins.

If you want a nice, tender roast of beef or a nice, juicy steak from corn fed beef don't fail to call on the Newton Meat company. They are handling some of the choicest beef that has ever been offered to the Sedalia trade. They make a specialty of prime roast beef, something you will enjoy. If you try one you will never go past them again. Why do you buy common meat and pay the same price you can get the very choicest corn-fed beef for?

Try our farm sausage, something you cannot get elsewhere in Sedalia. All pork, with country grown sage and plenty of red pepper in it, like your mother used to make down on the farm.

We are going to keep something that is new to Sedalia in the way of beef tenderloins. This is something that cannot be had only at hotels. Leave your order for some.

The turkey season about over now, so call and order one of our prime roasts. If you do you will have a dinner you will enjoy in a way you have not experienced for some time.

Bill Cook in Court.

Bill Cook, the notorious border bandit, was arraigned in the United States federal court at Fort Smith yesterday and pleaded not guilty of the charge of robbing the Wells-Fargo express at Redfield, I. T., July 18th, 1894. He also pleaded not guilty of robbing McDermott's store, Nov. 2, 1893. Cook says he intends to fight all of the charges against him. There were 1,482 people visited him at the United States jail last Sunday.

"The Kodak," the new comedy presented by this clever attraction next Saturday, matinee and night, is heralded as a fantastic musical burlesque extravaganza. The play, it is said, comes to us set to new music and embellished with new costumes and witty sayings, and as presented is a bright and mirth-provoking entertainment, the comedy element being of a new order especially interesting and laughable, and is interspersed with new and catchy music and funny songs.

"Alabama," Augustus Thomas' idyllic story of southern life, will be presented Monday eve, Jan 28. Mr. Thomas' play is now in the fourth year of its success. Each year the play has made a deeper impression on the people until it looks as though it had become the standard American drama.

Trustee's Sale.

Know all men by these presents, that on the 28th day of January, 1895, the undersigned, trustee, will offer for sale, at public auction, at the store room, 322 Ohio street, in the city of Sedalia, Pettis county, Missouri, said store room being in the Hoffman building, in which S. R. Wolf has been engaged in business, all of a certain stock of merchandise, consisting of a general assortment of piece goods and trimmings used in the merchant tailoring business. Also a lot of made-up clothing accumulated in said business, and various articles, such as suits, coats, trousers, vests and overalls in process of manufacture in said business, and also the following fixtures: Fifty feet of shelving, fourteen tables, four benches, one cutting board, one coal stove, one gasoline stove, one fireproof safe, one Singer sewing machine, one standard sewing machine, one tailor's iron, together with other fixtures, tools and implements used in said business; and also all accounts which appear upon the books of said S. R. Wolf, as due or owing him on account of his business at the place aforesaid. All of said property will be offered for sale at public auction and the bids therefor will be heard at ten o'clock a. m., of the 28th day of January, 1895, and if satisfactory bids are made for said goods they will then and there be struck off at said public auction to the highest and best bidder for cash, and if no satisfactory bid is made at said public auction in bulk for said goods, then the same will be sold at retail at public auction, commencing on the said 28th day of January, 1895, and at the same place from day to day until all the property aforesaid has been sold. Terms of sale, cash.

The foregoing sale is under and by virtue of a certain deed of trust executed by S. R. Wolf to Isaac Wolf as trustee for the creditors of said S. R. Wolf, mentioned in said deed of trust. The said Isaac Wolf having refused further to act under said deed of trust is recorded in recorder's office, in Pettis county, in chattel mortgage record Q, page 357.

"LANKY" BOB'S WIFE

She Witnessed His Fight With Dan Creedon.

A REMARKABLE WOMAN.

She Looks After the Finances and
Never Loses Sight of Bob's
Best Interests.

Mrs. Robert Fitzsimmons, wife of the Australian pugilist, who thinks he can defeat champion Corbett, although not as well known, is almost as interesting as her celebrated husband, says the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The present Mrs. Fitzsimmons is "Lanky Bob's" second wife, having married him in this country after he was divorced from his Australian spouse. By his first wife Fitz had one son, a bright little boy not yet in his teens, who was with his father at New Orleans when he was training for his fight with Creedon.

The present Mrs. Fitzsimmons is a sister of Martin Julian, Fitz's former manager, who handled him after his trouble with Jimmy Carroll. Julian, it will be remembered, came between Fitz and his wife, at least so the Australian charges.

The Antipodean made the acquaintance of his present wife while her brother was managing his affairs. She was on the stage then and under the name of Rose Julian had attained prominence in the variety business. When her brother split up with Fitz and the latter also separated from his wife, Rose Julian came to the front and undertook the job of filling both places to a certain extent.

Of course Capt. Glori is nominally Bob's manager, but Mrs. Fitzsimmons is a smart woman, and her husband has great confidence in her business judgment. She travels with him on the road and is rarely away from his side, watching his performance from the flies when he is on the stage. To her the box office statement is brought after the show, and if the truth were known it is probable she has considerable to do with her husband's plans in a pugilistic way.

Mrs. Fitzsimmons is a robust, handsome brunette with a fine figure. She was enjoying Bob's little act from the flies Sunday night, when a Post-Dispatch representative, who had met her in New Orleans, renewed the acquaintance. Before going any further it should be mentioned here that Mrs. Fitzsimmons witnessed her husband's fight with Dan Creedon, and that she is the only female who ever gazed upon a contest in the Olympic club's arena.

"It's a secret how I ever got to see that battle," said Mrs. Fitzsimmons with a smile when asked how she was smuggled into the Olympic club on the occasion mentioned.

"Bob knew I was anxious to see the contest, and, with the assistance of President Scholl, he managed to fix me up in a certain place, where I had a splendid view of the ring and could be seen myself by no one. When Bob left me to into the arena he said he would be back in fifteen minutes, and sure enough he did return in less than that time. I knew Bob would win, but then you know a woman could not hide her nervousness and anxiety on such an occasion, and I was greatly relieved when it was all over."

"Poor Col. Hopkins. I can imagine how he felt. I saw him there fanning himself, and when he first entered the ring he had a confident air about him that, I assure you, was not pleasant to me. But then I knew it would not last long, as Bob had said with all the confidence in the world that he would not lose. The colonel and Bob don't like one another, but it's only a business rivalry. Bob is certain he can beat Corbett, otherwise he would not be

Mrs. MIRA MILLS, of Sardinia, Big Stone Co., Minn., writes: "One year ago I was given up by my family physician and I soon began to mend. It was not long before I became well enough to take charge of my household duties again. I owe my recovery to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

WHY NOT YOU?

so eager to fight him. He fears no one, and I don't think he would undertake anything in a fighting way that he wasn't sure of accomplishing.

"When the American people get to know him as well as I do he will be as popular as Sullivan was in his palmy days. Bob is making a great deal of money on the road, but he can't keep it, and it gets away from him without any newspaper advertising."

The Birthday Social.

There was a splendid attendance at the M. E. church, south, social given at the residence of Miss Jennie Harlan, a most accomplished hostess, who resides at Broadway and Monticau streets, last night, and a snug sum was realized for the benefit of the church, pennies to the amount of the donor's age being contributed by each guest. "Grandma" Porter's contribution was 91 cents, she being the oldest person represented. Choice refreshments were served and all had a most enjoyable time, the music especially being appreciated.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of bad colds. It opens the secretions, relieves the lungs and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. If freely used as soon as the cold has been contracted, and before it has become settled in the system, it greatly lessens the severity of the attack and has often cured in a single day what would have been a severe cold. For sale by all druggists.

A TOUGH AT LARGE.

He is a Son of Belle Starr, the Queen of the Outlaws.

Monday night Ed Reed assumed the name and high handed authority of Bill Cook and began operating in Muskogee. The fore part of the night he spent in the dives, drinking and gambling.

About 2 o'clock Reed announced himself and began his work under his new name. He met two of the night guards and held them under his six shooter until he could go through their pockets. The guards had no money and Reed ordered them home and proceeded to ransack the town in general.

He went to the Western Union telegraph office and demanded admittance, but was refused. He then drew his pistol and broke in all the windows and entered the office and ordered the operator to shell out, but instead he jumped through the window with the money in his pocket and remained outside until Reed left.

Foiled in this attempt, Reed decided to rob Sam Severs, a wealthy Indian on Main street. He fired three shots into Severs' bed-room, broke in the windows and entered and demanded money. As Severs was without firearms he ran out of the house, followed by Reed, who was shooting every jump.

The citizens were aroused and at once armed themselves and gave chase to Reed. They exchanged several shots with him and threw him off of Severs' trail.

Reed gave the pursuers the dodge for 10 minutes and broke into Prof. Clark's house and demanded money or life. Before he had completed his work, the citizens came upon him and after a hand to hand bout with him, placed him in chains and lodged him in jail.

Yesterday Reed was taken to Fort Smith. He is a son of Belle Starr, the queen of outlaws, and sister to the Cook brothers. Reed's father was an outlaw in Texas when the Cook gang organized last spring, but for some cause left the gang early in its history, and was not indicted. He arrived in Muskogee Monday and endeavored to get a commission as deputy marshal, but was refused.

Take Coldicure in time.

Organized at Warrensburg. An enthusiastic meeting of Warrensburg business men was held at the city hall there last night. The items under consideration were the benefits of securing the proposed Missouri, Kansas and Texas branch from Holden to some point on the main line, the division of Johnson county court and the securing of the $100,000 normal appropriation. William E. Cressey, George W. Hout and C. E. Clark, sr., were selected to draft a constitution and by-laws for a board of trade. Forty-three business men declared their willingness to back the scheme with money.

Some time ago Mr. Simon Goldbaum, of San Luis Rey, Cal., was troubled with a lame back and rheumatism. He used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and a prompt cure was effected. He says he has since advised many of his friends to try it and all who have done so have spoken highly of it. For sale by all druggists.

RAILROAD RUMBLE.

A 1,200 Horse-Power Switching Engine.

ELECTRIC LOCOMOTIVE.

Items of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of "Democrat" Readers.

Although the electric locomotive of the Baltimore and Ohio road is to be used only for hauling trains through the Monumental city, and not for express service, the experiment of building and using it is watched with great interest in railway circles.

It is to be composed of two four-wheel trucks, and has a 300 horsepower motor on each axle, and when completed it is expected to weigh ninety-five tons.

While capable of making a speed of fifty miles an hour when running light, it will probably run at only thirty miles with a half load, and fifteen with a full load.

It is designed, however, says the New York Tribune, to handle quite as heavy trains as the best steam locomotives. One truck, which is finished, was tested the other day up at Schenectady. Being connected with a good-sized New York Central engine, the two were set to work pulling against each other.

The electric truck, although only half as powerful as the machine of which it is to form a part, weighed slightly more than its competitor, and therefore had a little better grip on the track. It pulled the steam locomotive up and down the road with apparent ease. This fact among others was clearly demonstrated.

Weighted equally with a steam locomotive, the electric motor will start a heavier load from a stationary position. The pull is constant during the whole revolution of a driving wheel in the one case, while in the other the angle which the crank makes with the line of draft causes a variation in the effective power.

The whistle of the new engine will be operated by compressed air, afforded by an air pump, which also serves the air brakes. There will be a Janney coupler at each end. The current is to be supplied from a power station, and taken into the motor by an overhead trolley. The generating apparatus will be installed and the line in working order before many weeks.
